

Living Wages and Child Poverty in Surrey

PUBLIC FORUM

A dialogue about LIVING WAGES as a solution to child and family poverty in Surrey

Hear about...

- The real cost of trying to bring up a family on low wages
- What a Living Wage is
- Business leaders who have become Living Wage employers
- The first municipality in Canada to pass a Living Wage policy
- How Living Wages can make a difference in SURREY

WITH SPECIAL GUEST, DEBORAH LITTMAN of LONDON CITIZENS (London, UK)

London, UK has had a Living Wage policy for over 5 years and next year's Summer Olympics in London will be the first Living Wage Olympics!

Come along to this free public event.
EVERYONE IS WELCOME. Learn, discuss, question.

SURREY

Tuesday, April 12 • 7:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

Theatre 2600, SFU Surrey

#250-13450 102nd Avenue, Surrey

Moderated by (To be confirmed)

RSVP's are appreciated, but not essential.

E-mail info@livingwageforfamilies.ca or phone 604.873.8437

For more information go to www.livingwageforfamilies.ca OR: www.facebook.com/livingwage

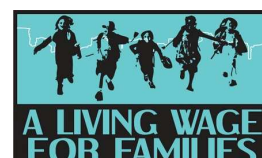

Vibrant Surrey

Community solutions for poverty reduction

first call
BC Child and Youth Advocacy Coalition

Theatre 2600, SFU Surrey
#250-13450 102nd Avenue, Surrey

