

The May Day Organizing Committee invites you to attend:

May 1st Rally & March

People before profiteering:
expose the roots of the capitalist economic crisis, demand solutions for the working class!

May 1st, 2009 Events

Rally & March: Gather at the Vancouver Art Gallery (Robson Street side) at 5:00 pm. March to Victory Square (corner of Cambie and E. Hastings) at 5:30.

Cultural Cabaret & Book Launch: Rhizome Café (317 East Broadway, near Kingsway) at 7 pm.

Will feature a debut reading of May Day: A Graphic History of Protest, plus performances by the Creaking Planks and others.

Advance workers' rights in the workplace and in our communities!

End anti-worker attacks on wages, benefits, and security.
An injury to one is an injury to all!

Workers unite to defend the rights of migrant and immigrant workers and to strengthen international solidarity!

Endorsed by: Alliance of People's Health, B.C. Committee for Human Rights in the Philippines, Bus Riders Union, Communist Party of Canada (Marxist-Leninist), Filipino Nurses Support Group, Filipino-Canadian Youth Alliance-Vancouver/Ugnayan ng Kabataang Pilipino sa Canada, FMLN, Grassroots Women, IWW Vancouver, Justicia for Migrant Workers-BC, People's Front, Philippine Women Centre of B.C., Public Service Alliance Canada-Vancouver & District Area Council, SIKLAB-B.C. (Advance and Uphold the Rights of Overseas Filipino Workers), and Workers' Communist Party-Iran.

For more information, please contact the May Day Organizing Committee c/o Grassroots Women at 604-682-4451 or the Organizing Centre for Social and Economic Justice at 604-215-2775.