

Join the PSAC Education Committee and Human Rights Committee for dinner and a film screening to celebrate Black History Month...

Film: The Road Taken - A nostalgic ride through history, this film documents the experiences of Black workers who worked as sleeping-car porters on Canada's major railways from the early 1900s through the 1960s.

"I think the story of the porters is a story of the pain and the beauty of survival." – Clifton Ruggles (teacher and artist whose father was a sleeping-car porter)

Film Introduction by Irma Mohammed, BC Fed Director of Education & Black Labour Activist
